THE CIVIC TRIUMPH!

The Demonstration on the Return of Mr. TURNER, in Honor of the triumph of HABEAS CORPUS,

THE RELEASED PRISONERS AND JUDGE BROOKS!

5 000 or 6,000 Persons Present!

A number of gentlemen from different portions of the State had arrived the night before in the City and in the morning and up to 8 o'clock, P. M., on yesterday, crowds of people from Wake, Johnston, Chatham, and Harnett, were seen coming into the city from every direction. The trains from Warren, Granville and Franklin, came in about 11 o'clock, A. M., bringing a large number.

THE PROCESSION.

The procession was formed about two o'clock, P. M., at the front gate of the Capitol at the head of Fayetteville Street. It was led by the Raleigh Brass Band, followed by the standard bearer, J. G. Hester, bearing the U. S. Flag upon which was printed in large capitals, "Down with all secret political societies," by his side was the bearer of devices, Chas. Wedden, upon which was inscribed, "Welcome to Josiah Turner, the Champion of Civil Liberty;" and "Let us have pesce," on both sides. Fastened to the top of the flag pole were the inscriptions, "Habeas Corpus played out—Kirk," and "Habeas Corpus restored,—Judge Brooks". Next came about 50 Marshals on horseback with sashes, &c., headed by two colored Conservative Marshals, Stephen Worth and A. B. Williams. Next came carriages for the guests hand somely decorated with flowers—next citizen's carriages, all under the charge of Gen. M. W. Ransom, Capt. J. Q. DeCarteret, Samuel Merrill, Esq., and E. E. Harris, Esq., Grand Marshals.

AT THE DEPOT.

The procession moved down Fayetteville street, ever and anon cheering, to Cabarrus street, thence to the Central Depot on the N. C. Railroad. About 3 o'clock P. M., the train from Hillsboro' signaled.—An immense crowd had collected awaiting the arrival of the train. As soon as it came in sight, the crowd commenced huzzaing.—On its arrival, a deafening shout from the entire crowd went up for "Josiah Turner," and three cheers were heartily given. Numbers rushed for Mr. Turner, and he was borne to the carriage. Placed by his side was Hon. John Kerr, also Gen. R. B. Vance and Mr. Carmichael of Hillsboro. Next came the carriages with other gentlemen recently released from prison, and citizens from Wake and other counties. These carriages were furnished by those enterprising and public spirited gentlemen Messrs. G. W. Wynne & Co. Following these came carriages filled with citizens and immense numbers on foot. The train from Hillsboro brought a large number of persons.

PROCESSION MOVING.

The procession moved from the depot up Harrington street to Hillsboro' street, down Hillsboro street to Fayetteville, thence down Fayetteville to the Court House. During the progress of the procession, a National salute of 36 guns was fired at the Court House, in honor of the guests, of habeas corpus and Judge Brooks. As the procession moved on through the streets, the ladies gave their welcome by waving of handkerchiefs &c. National flags were suspended from the stores of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., Douglas Bell and others.

ENTHUSIASM.

At the Court House, a stand had been erected for the speakers and others, handsomely decorated with flowers, with the National flag and devices heretofore described. On the arrival of the procession at the stand, the crowd as with one voice sent up huzzas which made the welkin ring. As Mr. Turner and Judge Kerr and others appeared on the stand, the enthusiasm arose to the highest pitch. Some time elapsed before the excitement subsided.—It was utterly impossible for the immense crowd to be accommodated in the area prescribed for the speaking. Numbers had to retire at convenient points in sight of the stand with no prospect of hearing the speakers.

THE SPEAKING.

Chief Marshal DeCarteret handsomely introduced the speakers. Judge Merrimon who had been invited to make the reception speech, was reluctantly compelled to decline because of the heavy pressure upon him in the Courts in behalf of the petitioners, &c., and Gen. R. B. Vance kindly consented to perform this duty. When he arose he was loudly cheered, and addressed the audience and the guests in an eloquent and thrilling speech. [We are compelled to defer the speeches of the occasion until to morrow for want of room.]

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., then arose and was received with the heartiest demonstrations of welcome on the part of the audience. He spoke for three quarters of an hour, dwelling at large upon the particulars of his arrest, &c., now and then, interspersing his remarks with bold utterances and withering rebuke, dealing heavy blows upon those who had menaced the peace of the State and outraged the liberties of the people. Speech to-morrow.

Hon. John Kerr was next introduced. No man in the State has had a higher reputation in the past as an eloquent and powerful speaker, than Judge Kerr. The enthusiasm with which he was received and the excitement of the occasion, put him in tune for one of the most effective and eloquent speeches, which has come from his lips for many a day. He showed that he was himself again, notwithstanding the rough seams through which he had passed. We shall not attempt a notice of the speech, hoping to present it to our readers to-morrow.

Gen. M. W. Ransom was next introduced. Loud cheers greeted him, and he proceeded in a strain of eloquence, gushing impromptu from a warm heart, carrying his audience with him. An abstract of his remarks shall be given to-morrow.

Senator Robbins of Rowan, being loudly called for, followed in one of his strong, trenchant speeches, dealing the severest blows right and left, and ever and anon, electrifying the audience with flashes of wit and good humor. We shall give a sketch of his remarks to-morrow.

Delighted and highly gratified, the audience retired late in the evening, after an interchange of congratulations with the guests and visitors.

THE SERENADE AT NIGHT.

About 9 o'clock, the band with a large crowd repaired to the National Hotel and serenaded Judge Brooks, Gen. Hunt, of the U. S. army and Gen. Hoke. They were severally called out, appeared and thanked them for the honor, but excused themselves from addressing the audience. Gen. Hunt remarked that speech making had not been his vocation when young and now he was getting too old to learn.

The band and audience then moved down to the Yarborough and serenaded, Gov. Graham, Judge Kerr, Hon. F. K. Nash, Senator Robbins, Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., Gen. Ransom and Gen. Vance, who were severally called out.

Gov. Graham acknowledged the honor in a brief but excellent speech, assuring them of his warm participation in the rejoicing of his fellow-citizens at the triumph of habeas corpus and civil liberty in the State and the triumph of Conservative principles in the late election. His remarks were full of wisdom and good counsel.

Judge Kerr appeared, and after expressing his thanks for the honor, proceeded to delight the audience with words of good cheer and wholesome remark.

F. K. Nash, Esq. of Hillsboro was next called out, and made a most telling and eloquent speech at some length.

Senator Robbins being called, appeared and again delighted the audience with a capital, but brief speech.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., was next called out, who said, he could do nothing more than acknowledge the compliment which the call implied. He found himself in the condition of the judicial power of the State, as declared by Judge Pearson, completely "exhausted." President Polk when he defeated the boldest man Kentucky ever saw, said in his inaugural, "the hour of victory should be the hour of magnanimity." We can afford to be magnanimous, for ours is a victory of virtue over vice, of law and order, and of constitutional liberty over all that was wicked, lawless and corrupt. He charged his friends to avoid any collision with Kirk's men on the street. This was the issue which the Executive had sought to make, and we conquered him when we failed to make it, with a repetition of his thanks, he bowed and bade the crowd good night.

Gen. M. W. Ransom being loudly called for, came forward and interested the audience with a brief speech. He urged in strong words the importance of the maxim "the hour of victory is the hour of magnanimity." He counselled moderation, but for adherence to principle.

Gen. R. B. Vance then answered to the call, in a short but telling speech.

The band and crowd next proceeded to Gov. Bragg's. After the serenade the Governor was called out, but remarked after acknowledging the honor, that the lateness of the hour and the severe pressure upon him in the Courts in defense of civil liberty and right, must excuse him from making a speech.

The band next proceeded to Judge Merrimon's and serenaded him and called him out. The Judge appeared and acknowledged the compliment, expressed his hearty participation with them in the rejoicings of the hour, over the triumph of the principles of civil liberty and for the glorious victory obtained in the State over radicalism. The hour however was too late and he was too much fatigued by his professional labors to entertain them with a speech. The band and crowd then retired, and the city once more slept in quiet and peace.

THE OVATION.

This city has often been the arena of many displays of enthusiasm, of brilliant processions, of loud and deafening huzzas by living masses congregated to do honor to the triumph of sound principle, and justice and virtue; multitudes have gathered to listen to the inspiring eloquence of Clay, Webster, Badger, Miller, Haywood and other great an I favorite orators; there have been great occasions and great displays here in honor of the great men of the State and of the Union, but there never was one in which holier principles, a higher enthusiasm, and a more grand and inspiring impression were exhibited, than the demonstration on yesterday. The whole population seemed alive with good feeling and all were delighted with the entire demonstration.

GOOD ORDER.

It gives us great pleasure to state, that the most perfect order prevailed throughout the entire day. Nothing indicating disorder required the slightest interposition of the city police, which we are glad to say, the Mayor ordered out in strong force, and who exhibited on the occasion most excellent efficiency. During the speech of Mr. Turner, the seats which had been temporarily put up before the stand, could not stand the immense pressure, fell, slightly bruising the ankle of a little boy and the leg of our confrere of the Ridgeway Press, Mr. Hughes. These injuries were slight and will be healed in a day or two. This was the only accident of the day, which is not at all chargable to the workman, but to the lumber furnished him and the short time allowed for erecting it.

Much credit is due to the efficiency of the Marshals and the universal disposition of the people to have everything done with decency and order. The Raleigh Brass Band, composed entirely of native colored citizens deserve much credit for the good music rendered on the occasion and for their remarkable proficiency in the short time they have been connected with the Band. They will compare now very favorably with any band in the State.

SEVENTH DAY.

THURSDAY MORNING, Aug. 25.

Court sat at 9 o'clock.

Thomas Kimbrough called and examined. Was in Yanceyville on the afternoon of May 21st; five 5 or 6 miles from town; saw Mr. Wiley get a "kealer" from Henderson's store and water his horse at the pump; was some 25 yards off; saw him get in his buggy and drive off towards home; this was about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, or a little after. Just as I was starting home, saw Stephens passing opposite the Court House gate, going toward the east until he reached the corner of the Court House fence where he turned South as if going in the direction of Mr. Corbitt's. My brother was with me. We talked of seeing him as we went home, don't recollect how we came to speak of it; don't recollect speaking of it to any one else till after the inquest. Heard of the death of Stephens, about 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, from a colored man named Jerry Oliver. After Mr. Wiley was arrested I spoke with Mr. Norfleet about seeing Stephens. It was late when I started home on Saturday evening, had walked but about a mile and a half when the sun went down.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Don't recollect exactly how long after seeing Stephens before I and my brother started home; we were together at Henderson's store when Stephens passed.—There was nothing particular that made me notice him or recollect him; I and my brother spoke of it; one or the other of us said he was probably going to the meeting at the school house; there were a good many people stirring about, black and white, don't remember any particular names—think I saw Mr. Bowe, (Wm.) thinks he was near Henderson's store—think I saw a tall negro some few steps off—he was going on east—both turned and got out of my sight—Bowe was 30 or 40 yards from Stephens—I was about same distance—don't recollect when I spoke of the matter first to brother—and then spoke of it again after Wiley's arrest—don't recollect to whom nor at what time next I spoke of it—think I told Monroe Kimbrough, colored, in the tobacco ground—don't recollect how long, whether it was days or weeks—(Rigmarole about tobacco) thinks it was before Kirk came—told it to Green Atkins about the same time—he one side I the other, he was attending to his tobacco, we join—told Norfleet of it at the Court House—this was after Kirk came. Was summoned last Saturday evening or Sunday. Had not drank any that day—don't know if brother had. Saw Stephens that day sitting in the Court House.

RE-DIRECT.

I started but a very short time after seeing Stephens, I was about starting when I saw him. He turned round South towards Corbett's—there is a pathway in that direction to the school house, through Poteet's lot, by Withers', this is the nearest way.

When I first saw Bowe he was standing on the Square, he then went into Norfleet's store, about ten steps from where I was.—Monroe Kimbrough and Green Atkins are both colored; only a fence divides the tobacco fields. I was afraid to talk about the matter after Kirk came, because he was arresting so many.

James C. Williamson examined. Was at Yanceyville at the meeting on the 21st May, it commenced about 10 o'clock; there was a recess from 12 till about 2 o'clock. I know Jo Womack now, but did not then; saw him in the Court room at the meeting in the forenoon; he was pointed out to me as the negro who had been whipped; did not see him move about, didn't notice that he seemed stiff or sore. Have lived in Caswell all my life; know Wiley well, know his character, it is as good as that of any man in the county.

M. W. Norfleet sworn and examined.—Was in Yanceyville on the day of the meeting; am Register of Deeds for the county; occupy a room in the Court House, opposite the former office of Clerk and Master. Am keeper of the Court House, appointed by the Commissioners, and keep the keys except those of the lawyers' offices. The Clerk and Master's office was occupied by Col. Dawes who was agent of the Freedmen's Bureau, and since he left, it has been used only to deposit kindling wood in; there was a pile of wood left there by Col. Dawes. The key to this room was only used once a month when the Commissioners met, to get out wood.—The key to that room usually lay on the mantel of the Register's room, which is also the Commissioners' room. The last time I remember seeing this key was on the first Monday in March. During a cool, wet spell about the middle of April told my clerk to send Calvin Miles to get some of the wood from the C. & M. room; don't know whether the Clerk went with him to the Register's room to get the other key, or whether he gave Miles the key to get it.—The other keys are generally kept in a drawer in the store.

On the night of the murder, about 9 or 10 o'clock, Dr. Roan knocked at my door and asked for the key to the C. & M's room; told him where it stayed and that the key to the Commissioners' room was in the store. Heard no more about it that night. Next morning the key was again enquired for; I went to the Commissioners' room to look for it but could not find it; looked for it at the store but could not find it; have not seen it since.

Tom Kimbrough came to my store, handed me a strip of paper and asked me to read it; I took it and read it, the contents were, as well as I recollect, about as follows:

"Did you ever say that you had seen John W. Stephens, after Mr. Wiley left Yanceyville on the day of the meeting?—if so I want you to come to see me," or I want to see you. Kimbrough said he had said so, but requested me not to say anything about it, for fear Kirk would arrest him. Know Wiley well, his character is as good as any man's in the county.

BY THE COURT.

Was not in the Commissioners' room the day of the meeting; don't think the room was opened; don't know whether the key had been left in the door; have no opinion whether it had or not.

J. R. Winston sworn and examined. I sent the strip of paper spoken of to Kimbrough; had been doing all I could for the prisoners, carrying them peaches and other things; heard that Kimbrough had seen Stephens; learned this from Mrs. Wiley; wrote the note in question, and knowing that Kimbrough was quite illiterate, made it as short and plain as possible. (Witness repeats the contents of the note; substantially as given by Mr. Norfleet.)

The testimony for the defense here closed for the present and that for the prosecution resumed.

Calvin Miles, colored, examined. Live near Yanceyville; when I went to get the wood for Mr. Norfleet, the key to the room was given to me by Mr. Roan, the Clerk. After getting the wood in the morning, hung the key up in the room; in the evening handed it to Mr. Roan; didn't go into the Commissioners' room; was charged not to leave the door open. (The rest of this testimony related to where witness was working and his seeing no one about the Court House at 6 o'clock.)

CROSS EXAMINED.

Got the key and got the wood during the wet spell in April; carried two turns in the morning and one in the evening; there was nobody with me; didn't see John Poteet about there, he was not with me after the wood. I didn't say, last Saturday, that he was with me; was examined at the inquest; didn't say to Major Graves, nor where he could hear me, that John Poteet was with me. Had drank but one small dram that morning; drank some afterwards. Saw Capt. Withers in his room when I went after the wood; went in and out at the front way.

Stephen Lawson, colored, examined.—Live in Yanceyville, was not at the meeting; worked in blacksmith shop all day; went up about 6 o'clock to charge my work; a boy told me that Stephens was missing; after awhile saw his brothers looking for him. This was about dark; went toward the Court House; stayed there all night; was at first on the east side and then went to the front; was where I could see the east side; there were 5 or 6 others with me; saw no one go in the Court House; heard no noise in there, nor any doors open or shut.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Went to Jonston's store a little before sunset to charge my work; the keys were sent for about 9 o'clock. The guard were placed around the Court House about an hour and a half in the night.

Mrs. Fannie Stephens examined, Am widow of the deceased; on the day of the meeting he left home about 2 o'clock, and said he would return after Mr. Brown's speech, which would be by 4 o'clock. As he didn't come, I became uneasy and sent a small colored boy to look for him; he could not find him and then sent a hired colored man; he came back without finding him, and I sent him back. He was to have been at home to attend to some business; and I was uneasy at his not coming, because his life had been threatened. After the colored man, Fred Graves had been sent the second time to look for him Henry Stephens came about twilight, just getting dark, and I sent him also. Mr. Hemphill was there about sunset and I had got him to go and look for Mr. Stephens. Mr. Hemphill came back about one o'clock and stayed till after daylight—I didn't see him; I was having spasms all the time; I heard his voice and knew it. I reckon Mr. Stephens was afraid of being attacked; of course he was in dread.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Last saw Mr. Stephens at 2 o'clock as he left to go up town; he put on his pistols as usual; didn't say anything of them or why he put them on. Knew that Hemphill was there because I heard his voice talking to my husband's sister, and some other girls that were there. Hemphill came first about 4 o'clock, then went up town and came back about sunset, when I sent him to look for my husband.

Joseph Womack was recalled, but objection was made and he was not examined.

George Bowe called and examined.—Was in the meeting at Yanceyville, and was there that night; saw Stephens before and after dinner; saw Hunt talking to him; after the adjournment went to the school house and returned about sunset; saw the boy looking for him; went to Yancey Jones', about an hour in the night Fred Graves came there and said he had not been found, went to the Court House, and assisted in the search, heard Henry Stephens say why the keys could not be found; they believed he was somewhere in the Court House and the guards were placed around it. Witness didn't see Stephens at the school house.

CROSS EXAMINED.

There is a near cut through towards Corbett's to Stephens' house; and also in the same direction by the old hotel to the school house; a walking way.

Dolly Lawson examined. Lives in Yanceyville, near the Court House on the east side; not more than 50 feet off; right opposite the Clerk and Master's room. On the afternoon of the meeting Stephens passed from towards Corbett's towards the front of the Court House. Some compliments passed between witness and Stephens. Saw him soon after at the window of Grand Jury room where tax lists were taken, leaning on the end of his cane.—After a while he left and witness saw him no more.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Heard the speaking in the Court House; missed Stephens from the window while Mr. Kerr was speaking; didn't see him at the window late in the afternoon, it was soon after they went in.

Hamp Johnston examined:

Came down from the Court House when the meeting broke up; saw Wiley and Lee Hensley at the South door; Mr. Wiley asked me to hitch his horse; did so and he came and got in his buggy and drove off.

CROSS EXAMINED.

I had just come down from the Court room when he asked me to hitch his horse; he joked me about a girl at his house; the horse was standing at a locust tree a little right of the door; I brought the horse to the corner, where he got in the buggy.

Adjourned to 3 o'clock, P. M.

THURSDAY EVENING, Aug. 25.

Testimony for the prosecution continued.

Calvin Bigelow, colored, examined.—Was examined before the inquest. Was in the meeting on the afternoon, May 21st; saw Wiley go up and touch Stephens and both go out together. This was when Mr. Brown was speaking; soon followed them down and on arriving at bottom of the stairs, saw them go down the passage and go into a room on the left. Don't know which door it was, whether it was the end door or the middle door; I was going out toward the gate and happened to turn my head and saw them. There was no one else in the passage when I saw them; Mr. Bedford Brown was speaking when they left; when I left Mr. Kerr was speaking.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Mr. Bedford Brown was speaking when Wiley and Stephens went out; I heard Dr. Roan say something about the colored people having the Court House; Mr. Kerr spoke after Mr. Brown; I went out after Mr. Kerr was done speaking. Wiley and Stephens went out while Mr. Brown was speaking and I went after Mr. Kerr spoke. I was before the jury of inquest; didn't say I was obliged to stay in Mr. Hill's room for fear of the colored people doing something to me. I stayed in Mr. Hill's office before I was examined; he told me to stay there till I was called for. Len Lea, Wm. Lea and Amos Bigelow were with me up in the Court House. I went down first and they followed, I went straight on home because I had my horses to feed. Don't know exactly where Stephens sat in the Court House. I was by the door and he was on the other end of the bench; he had right before me on my right hand; he had a newspaper in his hand and was reading it. I might have said I heard Dr. Roan say something about the colored people having the Court House, don't recollect; don't know whether I said so awhile ago or not; I might. Don't know if I said before the inquest that I went out while Hill was speaking, I might have said so; it has been so long I can't recollect; think I went out when Mr. Kerr was speaking. Mr. Kerr said the colored people could have the Court House, said they could have it that evening. The colored people were going to have a meeting at the academy. I did not see Wiley after he turned down the passage.

Ques. Didn't you say before that you saw Wiley afterward out on the square.

Ans. Don't think I said so, might have said it, don't recollect; I did see him before Mitchell's before I gave in my taxes; don't think I said I saw him afterward, but I might have said it; I didn't say I saw them go into the room where the body was found; don't think I said before, that I didn't see them go into a room; might have said it, don't recollect; I might have sworn before that we all went down while Hill was speaking. I didn't tell before all I have told here, wasn't questioned so much. The Sunday after the murder I told Isaiah Graves that I saw them go down together, but he said I didn't tell him that about their going into the room; he said that Monday.

Ques. Didn't you deny before the inquest that you saw them go into the room—didn't Daniel Johnston ask you the question and didn't you deny it?

Ans. I might have denied it; won't say I didn't; it has been so long I can't remember, but don't think any body asked me the question.

(Witness then explained about his being summoned and how he got here.)

Resumed. I just turned my head as I went out, saw them turn the corner into the passage as I saw them; didn't look back any more; they were about (15 feet) from me; think Kerr was speaking when I went down.

RE-DIRECT.

I told Humphrey Lea, on Sunday, about seeing them go into the room; didn't tell any one else; didn't tell the lawyers, only Mr. Hill; he didn't ask me about seeing them go into the room.

BY THE COURT.

I was afraid about that time; was afraid of the colored people and whites too; am easy to scare; was not afraid of the Ku Klux.

Humphrey Lea examined. I heard Calvin talking to Mr. Graves, on Sunday, heard him say to Mr. Graves that he saw Wiley and Stephens go down and go into a room; heard Graves say something in return but don't know what it was.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Q. Calvin said here just now that he didn't tell Graves about seeing Wiley and Stephens go into a room.

Witness. He did tell Graves so, I heard him, I asked him after Graves was gone what it was he said and he told me the same words.

Thomas Stephens sworn and examined.

Am brother to the deceased; was in the Court room in the afternoon of the day of the meeting after the close of the meeting went to my tobacco field 300 yards off and while there heard the town clock strike five. Went back up to Groom's tailor shop and while there a boy that lived with deceased came and asked me if I had seen him. The sun was then a half hour or three quarters high. Stayed at the Court House that night till 2 o'clock and then went to the house of the deceased and stayed there till after day.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Groom's shop is on the street about 50 yards from the Court House; the boy went towards Mitchell's after he told me of John being missing. I went home about dusk, and while eating supper Henry came and we went together to the public square; went round the Court House to Neal's store and made enquiries; it was then near 9 o'clock and before the guard was placed around the Court House. Was with those who searched the Court House; saw them look in at the window, the box was brought from opposite the grand jury room; think they looked in at both windows; stayed till 2 o'clock, saw no one in the Court House, Hemphill was with me and Henry till 2 o'clock, when I left; don't know what Hemphill did after that.

Jerry Graves or Poteet examined. Went with Calvin Miles after wood to the Clerk and Master's room in April last; we both got turns of wood and came out; don't know whether he locked the door or not, carried the wood to the store; didn't hear anything said about the key. This was in the afternoon, about three weeks before Stephens' death. When Calvin testified before the inquest and said that no one went with him after wood, I told him he had forgot, that I was with him. He said he was talking about another time, but when we went over to the shoe shop where there were a number of colored people, he denied that I was with him. We took the wood from near the middle of the pile; there was a right smart gap in the pile of wood where we took it from.

FOR THE DEFENSE.

Col. R. B. Watt recalled. Was present during the entire sitting of the jury of inquest on the body of Stephens; heard Calvin Bigelow's testimony; he was questioned about seeing Wiley and Stephens going into the room and denied most positively. The question was repeated and pressed by Daniel Johnston, or one of the colored jurors, and again denied it. He was asked if he had not said he saw six men carry Stephens into the room, and answered, he had not; then he was asked again if he had not said he saw Wiley and Stephens go into the room; answered he had not; then asked if he did not see them and answered, he did not; the question was varied, and he finally said he had not seen them go into the room and would not swear to a lie for nobody. It seemed the colored people had expected him to testify to the fact, and he was in apprehension from them if he did not. He then declared that he did not see Wiley and Stephens after they left the Court House. Kerr made only a few remarks in announcing the nominations; Hill spoke and then Dr. Roan announced that the colored people should have the Court House next Saturday, and Mr. Kerr confirmed it. It was about half an hour from the close of Mr. Brown's speech to the adjournment.

Col. R. B. Withers recalled. Heard Calvin Bigelow's evidence before the inquest; heard him positively deny seeing Wiley and Stephens go into a room; denied also that he had ever said he saw them go in there, and said he could prove by Graves that he had told him no such thing. Graves was examined at the inquest and confirmed the statement so far as it related to his having told him so.

There were other witnesses for the prosecution but they were not called, and the evidence here closed on both sides.

The Court then adjourned to 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS"

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with late improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate. Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet: Size Bale 4½ feet x26x32inches; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

PITTSBORO', N. C., May 6th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. DUNN.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 16th, 1870.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the pean upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully, JAS. B. WILDER.

RIVER LAWN, CUMBERLAND Co., N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq: Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

Respectfully yours, CHAS. H. BLOCKER.

HILLSBORO', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: SIR:—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

Respectfully, E. H. POGUE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents, I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured enjoys the privilged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to each through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

TURTLE AND CLAM SOUP.—At Pepper & O'Connor's Restaurant.

The Editor, Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., will not resume his editorial labors until next week, when he will speak forth the words of truth and soberness, to the edification and terror of scoundrelism and Radicalism generally and of certain parties in particular.

DWELLING BURNT.—We regret to learn that on Saturday night last, the dwelling and furniture of our friend, W. B. Ferebee, Esq., a member of the late General Assembly, were consumed by fire. He resided at the Ferry on Pasquotank river, in Camden county. It is supposed to have been the work of an icendiary. Loss about $3,000—no insurance.

ATTEMPTED HOMICIDE.—Last night while the Democratic meeting was going on, three unknown parties fired at one of Col Kirk's lieutenants, the balls passing through his clothes. The fire was returned when the miscreants fled. It is to be regretted that none of them were left behind to tell the tale.—Standard.

The above is clipped from the Standard of this morning. We do so to correct that paper and state the matter as we have heard it. It is not true that any Democratic meeting was held in the city last night.—At a late hour while the band and crowd engaged in the serenade were at Gov. Bragg's or Judge Merrimon's, some distance from the spot, a squad of colored soldiers from Clarke's command stationed near Governor Holden's residence to guard him, were seen on Martin street in the rear of Gov. Holden's residence, drawn up in line, as if about to charge. As the police drew near, the pretence was made that they had arrested a fellow who was charged with shooting at the Lieutenant, but on getting near the light, the police discovered the ruse. It seems, as we learn from parties who were watching them at the time, that the said Lieut. raised his coat tail and with his own pistol shot through it and at once four or five shots were fired and exclamation made as if they were shooting at the party who shot the Lieutenant. At once the squad marched into Fayetteville street with muskets at a charge and came down as far as the Yarbrough, alarming some persons. A city officer was informed that five shots had been fired into Gov. Holden's house and he went to Col. Clarke to send additional troops to the defence of the Governor, which the redoubtable hero of three wars quickly ordered. Some one said that Clarke's additional force came formed in battle array at a charge down Fayetteville Street, some huzzaing for Holden and Kirk. We presume the whole originated in the purpose of the squad at Gov. Holden's to have a little row and a little fun. It is however certain that no one was shot at, except a coat tail well raised out of harm's way and that this morning there was a double guard at Gov. Holden's.

THE BEST YET.

Georgy E. Perine, the best Engraver on Steel this country ever produced, has been a long time engaged on a 19x24 Portrait on steel of M. M. ("Brick") Pomeroy, which will be the best and most elaborate work of Art of the kind ever made in America. It will be printed on heavy plate paper for framing, and will rank with the choicest Art works of the world. The price of the engraving will be $2 00—very low for so fine a work. C. P. Sykes, P. O. Box 5217, New York City, Publisher of Pomeroy's Democrat, offers one of these beautiful Pictures as a premium for three new subscriptions to that paper, at regular, ($2 50) received at the office in New York City, before the first day of December, when the engraving will be ready to send out, by mail, wrapped on a roller, prepaid.

We shall soon see how looks the man who writes Sense and Nonsense; political and descriptive articles, and those strangely beautiful Saturday Night Chapters.

A Chapter of Facts.

Space is valuable in a newspaper, and it is therefore proposed in this advertisement to condense a variety of facts, important to the public, into a small compass. Those facts refer to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—what that celebrated medicine is, and what it will do. In the first place then, the article is a stimulant, tonic and alterative, consisting of a combination of an absolutely pure spirituous agent with the most valuable medicinal vegetable substances that Botanic research has placed at the disposal of the chemist and the physician. These ingredients are compounded with great care, and in such proportions as to produce a preparation which invigorates without exciting the general system, and tones, regulates and controls the stomach, the bowels, the liver and the minor secretive organs.

What this great restorative will do must be gathered from what it has done. The cases of dyspepsia, or any other form of indigestion, in which it has been persistently administered without effecting a radical cure is yet to be heard from, and the same may be said of billious disorders, intermittent fever, nervous affections, general debility, constipation, sick headach, mental despondency, and the peculiar complaints and disabilities to which the feeble are so subject. It purifies all the fluids of the body, including the blood, and the genial stimulus which it imparts to the nervous system is not succeeded by the slightest reaction. This is a chapter of facts which readers, for their own sakes, should mark and remember.

RADICAL SOLILOQUIES ON THE ELECTION.

Gen. Hill, of the Southern Home, gets off the following in addition to those heretofore published:

GRAPEVINE TELEGRAMS.—The operator has sent us a few more of the sayings of the loyalists on hearing of their defeat.

Judge Logan said: "Shades of Minerva! have I been whorshipping thy sacred bird so long and dost thou desert me now?" Judge Jones (Jay bird) said: "I'll need a revenue stamp somewhere else to pass me now." Judge Watts (Greasy Sam) said: "They'll make soap grease of me, if I was scraped and scoured enough to be fit to go into the pot." Ashley (from Buzzard's Bay) said: "I've prayed and stolen enough in North Carolina. I've made a good thing of the School Fund. Bless the Lord, O my soul." Gen. Bolivar's bondsmen said: "We love our wives and we'll make over our property to them." The trimmers said: "An unexpected breeze, we'll have to shift sail a little." Gen. Dougass (son of Stephen A.) said: "I longut the manacled prisoners bravely.—The Governor and Boyd will honor me." Son Joseph William said: "Dear bottle, all my hopes center in thee." Dad said: "Return to the faith of thy fathers, Joseph. Become a Democrat, and bring my grey hairs with rejoicing to the grave."

TELEGRAPHIC.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 25—Customs for the week ending the 20th, $4 503 000.

Kennis & Co., distillery at San Francisco has been seized. The seizure aggregates many thousand dollars.

Porter succeeds Farragut.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 25.—A special to the Telegram says, "It is reported that the attempt to assassinate McMahon was repeated this morning. Reinforcements continue to go forward. A number of Arab chiefs have gone. A corps of Poles have organized for the French army. Preparations for the reception of the wounded continue. Eugenie personally inspected the hospitals. Bread is exhorbitantly high in the fear of the Prussians."

FOREIGN.

LONDON, August 25.—In the absence of official news it is believed that the Prussians will not attack Paris, but will turn their attention to the reduction of Metz, and the destruction of Bazaine, leaving the Crown Prince to cut McMahon's communication with Paris and check him from moving to Bazaine's relief. It is further believed that the Prussians are strong enough to disregard McMahon's reinforcements, composed as they are, of raw recruits.

Paris is utterly without news from the seat of war.

The entrenchments around Metz are completed. It is said that a deputation from the Corps Legislatiff have gone to the Emperor with a demand for abdication.

The Corps Legislatiff is now permanently guarded by troops.

The announcement of a Provisional government is imminent.

Belgium's neutrality has not been violated. Belgium was first inclined to yield on the ground of humanity, but finally declined.

No relief from Metz up to noon yesterday.

PARIS, August 25.—The La Liberte firmly demands of the deputies to efface all individualities in this hour of need. "We must not compromise the future of France. There must be one grand object in view." It also says, "France yesterday gained a great victory. In one day many hundred millions were paid into the Treasury. Prussels for two months sought to procure a loan a sum vainly." The "National Guards" and the "Garde Mobile" are defending Toul very gallantly.

It is stated that the garrison at Brussels have been ordered immediately to the frontier.

The La Liberte from private information says, that the siege of Paris is improbable now.

The Patrie repeats formally that the Prussians were defeated Sunday.

An extract from the Journal Officiel says: Our forts are free; our fleet will strike boldly in the North and Baltic seas; our commerce and ministry are active; our credit is good and their can be no comparison between ours and the enemy's finances. Prussia locked for treachery here and wonders at the promptitude of the nation in arming and organizing, and understands by this time that the more the struggle is protracted the better our situation. Our resources in men and money are inexhaustible and though invaded, France arms the entire nation. The neutral powers remain friendly but they comprehended that there cannot now be any question of mediation.

The Soiree in commenting on the statement that Imperial headquarters were at Rheims says "What cares I Imperial headquarters can only be a superfluity, a superfection, an embarrassment and a pretext for loosing battles. The crisis is too great to think of Imperial headquarters any where near those of the commander-in-chief."

Friday Evening Dispatches.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 26.—A special to the Courrier Des Etats Unis dated Paris, August 24, says: "I cannot speak of the movements of McMahon upon whom rests to-day all the hopes of the country. Silence is both my security and duty. I share these hopes; I believe that the conquered at Woerth will gain a brilliant revenge. A great battle is imminent, not because we seek it, but because the enemy is in a position making a battle necessary to his success. There is some talk of peace in diplomatic circles, but except under a crushing defeat, the French people will have nothing of it while the Prussians are on our soil. Wind D'Ameregny has said this prayer unanimously approves. A corps of the Prussian army occupies the department of the Aube. The march on the capital continued but with evident resistation."

MONTREAL, August 26.—There was a terrific storm. Five persons were killed by one stroke of lightning. Reports of fires caused by the lightning are coming from all quarters.

FOREIGN.

CARLS-RUHE, August 26.—The bombardment of Strasburg continued all Wednesday night. A large part of the citadel and arsenal have been destroyed. Many fired has occurred in the city.

LONDON, August 26.—The German Uhlans are momentarily expected in the vicinity of Paris. Patrols are stationed everywhere to announce the event.

The Times thus closes an article on the situation: "The French motive throughout is to avoid a fight. The Prussians are now within a short march of Paris, where perhaps some slight additional resistance will be met with."

A private dispatch from Paris says that the enemy marches slowly but surely on the city This is undeniable.

Baron D'Armin, the Prussian Minister to Rome has been created a Count as a reward for his services in keeping the State quiet.

London Standard has a special from Verton, Belgium, "A sharp engagement took place on Thursday at Stenay near Motmedus. Prussians were successful, many French wounded are at Motmedus."

BERLIN, August 26.—Our corps all confronts Bezdue, while the remainder of the Prussians are marching on Paris.

PARIS, Aug. 26.—The environs of Metz have been inundated by order of the French authorities.

At a council of Ministers yesterday, favorable news has communicated from both armies. No fighting yesterday. The army of the Prince Royal has reir graded. Orders have been given the mounted gendisarmes to resist the raids of the Uhlans.

Keratry's proposition of adding deputies to to the Committee of Defence was defeated by a large majority.

Prince Salm Salm was killed at Gratioth

Trochu has decreed that individuals devoid of means of subsistence and whose presence threatens the public order shall be expelled. Twelve hundred were arrested under this decreed.

The Germans Uhlands appeared at Laugre but soon fell back to the northward on the cross D'Armie which is marching towards Chalons. The Crown Prince was reported at 8th. Dozier on the 23rd. Half of the troops lately at Toule marched to Nancy. The garrison at Toule defends the place heroically. The enemy is marching towards Varennes, eighteen miles west of Verdun. The people on the outskirts of Stenay between Verdun and Mezeres, are defending themselves gallantry against raids and inflicted considerable damage to the enemy. Trochu vainly demands displacement of Pietris, the Prefect of Police.

FLORENCE, August 26.—It is certain that Prince Napoleon's mission to this country is a failure.

The "Opinion Nationale" says that a new army is forming behind the Loire.

The person who attempted to shoot McMahon, was shot to-day.

CHOLERA.

HOW TO CURE IT.

At the commencement of the Diarrhœa, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot, if convenient) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dysepsia, Dysentery, Asthma, cures in one night by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache don't fail to try it. In short, it is a PAIN KILLER.

Directions accompany each bottle.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.

Prices, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

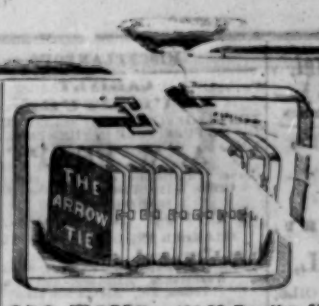
ARROW TIES



FOR BALING COTTON.

250 TONS, (1000 Bundles, 50 lbs each and resembling, 20 Ties and Buckles per Bale) NOW in Store.

IMPORTED DIRECT FROM LIVERPOOL.

WE OFFER TO THE FARMERS AND MERCHANTS OF THE STATE THE ABOVE TIES, which are now so universally known and approved throughout the Cotton States, as the Neatest, Strongest and Most Easily and Quickly Applied of any Tie Known in the Market.

The fastenings, as well as the bands, are of the best ENGLISH WROUGHT IRON, and experience has shown that they do not break, as many of the CAST IRON fastenings of other Ties do, thereby saving much expense in rope, labor and mending Cotton at the shipping port.

☞ Prices as low or lower than GOOD TIES can be bought at in any market on the Coast. ☜

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company, in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1863 and 1865, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends". Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION

BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED

DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP,

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never out cut the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

The No. 3 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 30 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. The number of feet in the depth of the well must be given in all cases

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD, Examining Physician.

Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
